DEAR FRIENDS,

Welcome to the 2025 Season!

At WHBPAC, we believe in making every night count – and this season, we’re raising the bar.

From major headliners to laugh-out loud comedy to unforgettable live music, every night brings a new reason to celebrate.

But the magic doesn’t end when the curtain falls on a Saturday night.

Thanks to your support, WHBPAC is also inspiring young artists, nurturing creativity, and making the arts accessible to all ages through our award-winning education programs.

Every ticket, every standing ovation, every laugh shared – it all helps keep the arts alive and thriving right here in our community.

Here’s to a season packed with unforgettable nights – and even brighter days ahead!

See you at the show,
Julienne

FALCO & BOOK PLAY

JERRY GARCIA

Grammy Award-winning musicians Andy Falco and Travis Book of The Infamous Stringdusters bring their passion for Jerry Garcia's timeless music to life in an intimate and dynamic duo performance. What began as casual backstage jam sessions has evolved into a heartfelt tribute to Garcia's legacy; drawing from his solo work, Grateful Dead classics, and the traditional songs he loved. Stripping these beloved tunes down to just guitar and bass, Falco and Book create an interactive and immersive experience that highlights the depth of Garcia's songwriting. Don't miss this rare chance to hear these iconic songs reimaged in a way that feels both fresh and deeply rooted in tradition.

ALEX EDELMAN

Alex Edelman, one of the most acclaimed comedians of his generation, is known for blending stand-up with narrative storytelling. His hit solo show Just For Us ran for over 500 performances worldwide, including a Broadway run, before premiering as an HBO special in April 2024. The show earned him a Tony, an Emmy, and a spot on the Time 100 list. He recently appeared in Jerry Seinfeld's Netflix film Unfrosted and is developing a feature with A24, which he'll write, direct, and star in, produced by Marc Platt and Steven Levenson. His debut essay collection, I Don't Belong Here, sold at auction to Avid Reader. Edelman's TV credits include The Great Indoors (CBS), Teenage Bounty Hunters (Netflix), and Saturday Night Seder, which raised over $3.5 million for Covid relief. He has written for The Atlantic, The Believer, ESPN's 30 for 30, the U.S. State Department, and spent over a decade as a speechwriter for the Dodgers and Red Sox. Next, he stars in and writes for Greg Daniels' The Office spinoff on Peacock.

BEGINNINGS: A CELEBRATION OF THE MUSIC OF CHICAGO

The golden era of big arena rock returns with Beginnings, the ultimate tribute to the timeless music of Chicago! This high-energy band brings the electrifying magic of a live Chicago performance to life, flawlessly recreating their massive catalog of hits with stunning precision, passion, and show-stopping musicianship. From the soaring brass of 25 or 6 to 4 to the heartfelt melodies of You're the Inspiration and the infectious energy of Saturday in the Park, Beginnings delivers a concert experience that's as close to the real thing as it gets. With Chicago's legacy spanning over five decades, five #1 albums, and more than 20 Top 10 hits, this is more than just a tribute—it's a musical time machine back to an era when rock was larger than life. Whether you're a lifelong fan or discovering their music for the first time, this show will have you singing, dancing, and reliving the magic of Make Me Smile, Hard to Say I'm Sorry, and so many more.

DES BISHOP

Irish-American powerhouse Des Bishop is rising the comedy ranks in the US - a native New Yorker whose comedy knows no borders. Moving from Queens to Ireland as a teenager in the '90s, Bishop quickly carved out a name for himself with his decisive wit, fearless honesty, and brilliant storytelling. His stand-up blends personal insight with global perspective—always smart, often provocative, and undeniably hilarious. Des became a household name in Ireland through groundbreaking TV series like The Des Bishop Work Experience (2004), where he tackled low-wage jobs to highlight the challenges of everyday workers, and Joy in the Hood, where he brought stand-up comedy to marginalized communities across Irish cities. He followed that with In the Name of the Fada (2008), an audacious project in which he learned Irish from scratch and performed an hour-long comedy set entirely in the language—earning him the IFTA for Best TV Series. With five hit stand-up specials under his belt, Des returns with his latest digital release, Of All People, and his previous specials, One Day You'll Understand and Made in China, have cemented his reputation as one of comedy's most compelling voices. Des Bishop isn't just a comedian—he's a storyteller, a cultural explorer, and a must-see performer whose work resonates around the world.

THANK YOU FOR SUPPORTING OUR COMMUNITY

Each year, our annual event The Holiday Stroll on Main Street continues to foster goodwill and lifts spirits throughout the downtown community. Created to further our mission of stimulating the local economy, it acts as a merry kick-off to the holiday shopping season. On the first Friday in December, hundreds of attendees patronize over 30 retailers, enjoy delicious bites and drinks from local restaurants and caterers, along with carolers from the WHBPAC Arts Academy.

The WHBPAC partners with Toys For Tots to host an annual toy drive in the lobby of our theatre throughout November and December. Thanks to our patrons, the bins in our lobby were overflowing!

Our partnership with non-profit organization Vet Tix is an important component of the WHBPAC's outreach initiatives. Ensuring that military Veterans are engaged and welcomed within their communities, Vet Tix has provided ticket opportunities for local Veterans to WHBPAC shows such as The Infamous Stringdusters and Mariachi Herencia de Mexico.

THE Good WE DO

Melodies & Memories is the free landmark creative aging program started in 2010 that serves as a socially engaging outlet for local seniors. Fusing the performing arts with creative expression and cognitive stimulation, Melodies and Memories gives seniors the opportunity to create lasting friendships and explore their love for the arts through a variety of song, dance, and comedy. This year, we had a nonverbal cast member who by the end of their time with us, was performing on stage singing and telling her story alongside her son.

UpBEAT! is the daytime arts education program for differently-abled young adults and their caregivers. Utilizing comedy, song, music, and dance, students learn valuable life-skills while forming meaningful relationships with their peers.

Our partnership with The Butterfly Effect Project continues to blossom and grow. In The Butterfly Monologues, a program created and taught by PAC Executive Director Julienne Penza-Boone, students learn how to express themselves through acting, improvisational exercises, and emotional prompts to craft a monologue about an experience in their life. During the summer, young butterflies learn all things musical theatre at our award-winning summer camps, like singing, dancing, and acting, culminating in a staged show at the end of the camp week!

Every year WHBPAC presents community performances to celebrate the diversity in our region. This year we presented Hero: The Boy From Troy, a musical about the life of Civil Rights leader John Lewis. These performances include meaningful post-show discussions between audience and performers.

DEAR THEATRE FRIENDS,

My name is Justin Harris and I am so proud to be celebrating my first anniversary as Director of the Arts Academy. While this was my first year as Director, I have been with the Academy for nine years in various capacities, and have had the honor and privilege of seeing it evolve and grow, first-hand: illuminating possibility, branching out in service and creating unique arts experiences and opportunities for our students and community.

Thanks to support from donors like you, this year the Arts Academy:

- Welcomed over 7,000 students from as far east as Montauk and far west as Longwood to see curriculum-connected School Day Performances from all over the United States, Scotland, England, Nova Scotia, and Ireland.
- Uplifted over 450 students, ages 5 – 95 to meet their performance potential in programs like Little Players (for our youngest thespians), Melodies & Memories (for seniors 65 and better), Upbeat (program for young adults with disabilities), cultural partner specialty programs with The Butterfly Effect Project, and the full breadth of our yearly award-winning musical theatre programs for children and music and movement programs for adults!
- Awarded nearly $20,000 in scholarships, half of which were awarded to local children and families of color. Thank you to the James and Marjorie Kuhn Foundation for their scholarship support and steadfast belief that the arts should be accessible to ALL.

With our mission in mind, to empower, engage, and educate youth and adults through high-quality, transformative performing arts and storytelling experiences, we launch another summer season of incredible camps and an autumn full of magical classes. Thank you for your invaluable trust and support as we strive to fulfill our lofty and meaningful mission. We hope to see you on stage!

Yours in the arts,
Justin Harris

CAMP SP TLIGHT: CAMP BROADWAY

Get ready to take center stage this summer at Camp Broadway—the ultimate experience for fans of the Great Bright Way! Step into the spotlight and work side-by-side with real Broadway professionals as you learn high-energy choreography, belt out show-stopping tunes, and bring dramatic scenes to life. It all builds to a dazzling final performance of Catch Me If You Can—the high-flying musical that starred Aaron Tveit, Kerry Butler, and Tony-winner Norbert Leo Butz. Yes, you'll be singing favorites like "Goodbye" and "Fly, Fly Away" just like the pros.

But that's not all—midweek, we're hopping on a motor-coach to the Big Apple for a Broadway day trip you'll never forget. You'll be one of the first to catch the buzzworthy new hit, Boop! The Musical, live on stage in NYC. Whether you're dreaming of Broadway or just love to perform, Camp Broadway is your ticket to an unforgettable week of music, magic, and memories. Curtain up—your spotlight awaits!

SETTING THE STAGE FOR BRIGHT FUTURES...

STUDENT SPOTLIGHTS:

CONNOR CANTY

When was your first program with WHBPAC Arts Academy and how old were you? My first program was Summer of 2019, I was 6 years old.

How did you initially feel the first day of the program and did that change by the last day? On my first day, I felt excited because it was my first time doing the program. By my last day, I was even more excited to do the show and perform in front of an audience for the first time.

What was your favorite production to be in? My favorite production was The Jungle Book.

What program are you excited to participate in coming up? I am excited for next year's fall show.

In what ways did the program challenge and inspire you? It inspired me to keep acting because of the feeling you get on stage, and it challenged me to improve my acting skills to work on becoming a better actor.

What favorite memories do you have about your time in the Arts Academy? My favorite memories from WHBPAC Arts Academy are from tech week and the day of the show. Those are the best times of the production.

Are there any moments that you are most proud of yourself for? I was proud of myself during Jungle Book. I remembered all my lines as Mowgli.

Is there a skill or lesson you learned that you'll always remember from being in WHBPAC Arts Academy? I will always remember to cheat out, know where I should be on stage, and never have your back facing the audience.

What is a piece of advice you would give to another student to encourage them to join the Arts Academy? I would tell anyone that is considering doing the Arts Academy that you will learn a lot about acting and have fun, always practice, be yourself, and make new friends.

MARGAUX GESSIN

When was your first program with WHBPAC Arts Academy and how old were you? My first program at WHBPAC was Alice in Wonderland when I was in kindergarten (6 years old).

What was your favorite production to be in? My favorite production to be in was Hercules. I really liked it because I really love Greek mythology.

What program are you excited to participate in coming up? I'm excited to participate in Snow White and the 7 Dwarfs this summer.

What favorite memories do you have about your time in the Arts Academy? I was challenged to accept that even if you don't get a big part, if you keep trying, you can make your dreams come true. That inspired me.

Are there any moments that you are most proud of yourself for? My favorite memories are the spirit days. I won "mismatch day" when I was in kindergarten and I still love looking at the picture. I am proud of myself for persevering when I ran off the stage out of fear in the middle of the performance! Running back onto the stage made me feel much better.

Is there a skill or lesson you learned that you'll always remember from being in WHBPAC Arts Academy? Being part of a production with lots of people performing together taught me a lot.

What is a piece of advice you would give to another student to encourage them to join the Arts Academy? Even when things get hard or you don't get the part you want, keep going and persevere.

What initially drew you to become a sponsor of the Westhampton Beach Performing Arts Center? When we started coming to the Hamptons for summers it was during the pandemic. While there were few activities to do outside of the home we had so much fun attending outdoor events put on by WHBPAC and we knew that it would become part of our summer fun!

Can you tell us about some of the specific shows, programs, or events you've sponsored or supported at WHBPAC? We've attended many many shows and last summer we sponsored Jeff Garlin's visit. It was a blast.

Why is supporting the arts – and specifically live entertainment – important to you? It just always seems to bring immediate joy to both of us and our guests; we always try to incorporate a live show into the trip - it's always a highlight for our friends.

How has your partnership with WHBPAC benefitted your connection to the local community? For me it's been a great way to meet locals and feel a part of something. I look forward to making even more friends now that I am a board member.

What has been your most memorable WHBPAC moment? Our daughter had the privilege of interning last summer at WHBPAC and seeing her thrive in that role was really fun for us. Coming to shows to support her internship made it even more fun for us!

Calyn Disbrow, comedian Jeff Garlin, Lisa & Michael Kaufman

SPONSOR SPOTLIGHT: LISA & MICHAEL KAUFMAN

In what ways do you feel WHBPAC impacts the Westhampton Beach community and surrounding areas? Seeing the upcoming shows advertised on the marquee each week brings such a fun level of excitement to our sweet town! We are a small town but getting such top talent is so exciting!

How does sponsoring WHBPAC align with your personal values, mission, or commitment to the community? I'm a big believer in being involved in things you're passionate about and supporting the arts is one of those things. It's a way to bring people together in a world that often feels all too serious.

What would you say to other businesses or individuals who are considering becoming a WHBPAC sponsor?

I would say come to some shows and feel the energy in our theater and you will immediately know that this place is special. Everyone on staff is so committed to building a sense of community around the arts and there is such a feeling of belonging that comes with involvement at WHBPAC!

If you could describe your experience as a WHBPAC sponsor in just three words, what would they be? Relationships, Joy, Excitement!

STEP INTO THE LIMELIGHT...BECOME A SHOW SPONSOR!

When you sponsor an event at WHBPAC – whether it's a marquee Mainstage performance or an inspiring Arts Academy program – you help us dream bigger, reach farther, and bring world-class arts experiences right here to Westhampton Beach and Eastern Long Island.

But event sponsorship isn't just a gift – it's an experience. As a sponsor, you'll enjoy exclusive perks like:

- VIP meet-and-greets with your sponsored artist or performers
- Invitations to private receptions and behind-the-scenes moments
- Special recognition and benefits at other performances throughout the season

Most importantly, you'll play a starring role in supporting extraordinary arts and education programs that enrich our community through your fully tax-deductible sponsorship.

Ready to take your place in the spotlight? Contact Christine Alford at 631-288-2350 ext. 117 and let's create something unforgettable together.

FILMS

Cinema That Inspires. Stories That Stay With You.

This year, WHBPAC's celebrated film program continues to offer thought-provoking cinema and dynamic conversations. Now taking place on Monday evenings, the series features compelling films from around the world, followed by insightful discussions moderated by longtime host and arts commentator Andrew Botsford. Select screenings will include special guest appearances and filmmaker talkbacks, offering audiences a deeper dive into the stories that shape our world.

From documentaries that confront history to narratives that challenge the present, each film is selected to spark conversation and connection. Whether you're a devoted cinephile or a curious newcomer, the WHBPAC film series invites you to discover the power of film in the community.

Tickets and updates on scheduled films can be found at whbpac.org or by calling 631-288-1500.

SINGER-SONGWRITING

Workshop

In the fall of 2019, a handful of local musicians—each with a love for storytelling through song—came together with a simple dream: to write, to play, and to grow. What started as a small gathering quickly evolved into one of WHBPAC's most beloved Arts Academy programs, the Singer-Songwriter's Workshop, led by veteran musician Fred Raimondo and WHBPAC Director of Production Frank Russell.

United by a passion for songwriting and self-expression, this workshop brings together adults from all walks of life who are eager to explore the craft of music—whether they're seasoned performers or picking up a guitar for the first time. With warmth, humor, and deep expertise, Raimondo and Russell guide students through the art and business of songwriting, helping them find their voices and shape their personal stories into powerful, resonant songs.

The result? Music that's raw, heartfelt, and honest—songs that connect across generations and backgrounds, carrying the emotional weight of lived experience. Beyond the classroom, this community thrives: members cheer each other on at open mics, jam together at local gigs, and stay connected through an active Facebook group that feels more like a family than a forum.

Now in its fifth year, the workshop has blossomed into a vibrant collective of dozens of musicians who are making their mark across the island. They collaborate, experiment, challenge themselves, and most importantly, support one another—proving that music is as much about community as it is about craft. Each semester culminates in a live performance - a celebration of courage, creativity, and the sheer joy of making music together.

If you're looking for inspiration to chase your creative dreams, look no further. The Singer-Songwriter's Workshop is living proof that it's never too late to start writing your song—and never too early to find your tribe.
